ORIGINAL LUBRICANTS

Original lubricants are the best way to protect your machine investment, by both maximizing uptime and by improving the resale value of your equipment.

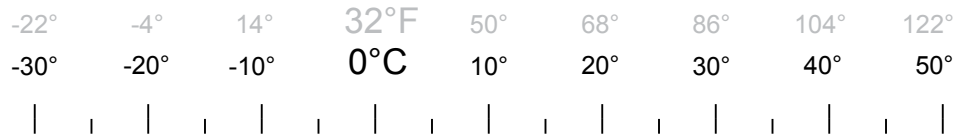

Chicago Pneumatic lubricants have been especially developed to match our maintenance specifications, and therefore provide optimal protection for your products. Our lubricants last longer and perform better.

Pick the right lubricant

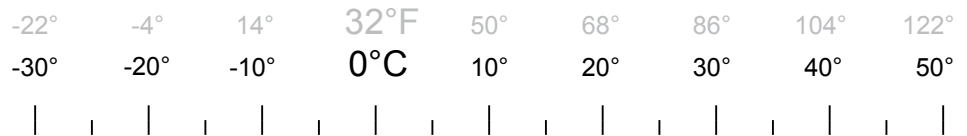

Every type of machine needs a specific lubricant, and that's not all. To achieve maximum uptime, performance and equipment lifetime, the choice of lubricant will also depend on the application and ambient conditions
